The Pastor's Pen "Learning from Past Mistakes"

A football coach had reached the point of exasperation. "Losing five games is bad enough, but what really frustrates me is that we keep making the same mistakes over and over. We are not learning anything from our mistakes!"

MISTAKES! A common trait of our humanity. No one is perfect, Every artist messes up a canvas or two (or more) before the masterpiece is produced. Every writer uses a pencil with an eraser. We cannot allow our mistakes to control our moods and to affect our enthusiasm.

The person who has never made a mistake is the person who is a failure because he or she never attempted to do anything worthwhile.

Here are some affirmations you can use concerning mistakes:

- My mistakes are not final and, therefore, not fatal.
- I did not fail to dream, to decide, and to try.
- I did not fail in courage, to take chances, to get up after failing.
- I will not allow my mistakes to cause me to quit, take my eyes off my goal and to try again.

Pray: Help me, dear Lord, to learn from my mistakes and shortcomings. Help me to turn the mistake

Hooray for fathers- Happy Father's Day (June 19th)

What is a father?

Being of the male species does not make a man a father, for a dad is a special blend of hero, disciplinarian, a friend, someone to look up to. Someone to model...someone with a touch of the "mother" in him, someone who is big enough to say, "The fault is mine"...someone who lives the kind of life that makes you want to say, "I, too, shall follow him!"

Father's Day

The Deacons will be celebrating Father's Day on June 19th with pies between the services. Pie donations by the congregation are appreciated.
