Something To Think About...

I knew a young man whose education was stifled because his father gave him two automobiles, a motorboat and a house.

I knew a man who never accomplished anything in life because he was always tinkering with the trifles.

I knew another man whose house was so filled with rare and costly antiques that he was a slave to care for his collections.

“Forgetting and Remembering” (Pastor’s Pen)

If you would increase and prolong your life, forget the following:

- Forget the faults of others
- Forget all the slander you have ever heard
- Forget the fault finding and give a little thought to the cause that provoked it.
- Forget all personal quarrels or histories you may have heard by accident, and which, if repeated, would seem a thousand times more than they are.
- Blot out, as best as you can, all the disagreeables of life, they will come, but will only grow larger when you remember them.
- Put aside the constant thought of the acts of meanness, or, worse still, malice will only tend to make your life bitter, instead of better.
- Obliterate everything disagreeable from yesterday; write on today’s clean sheet only those things which are lovely and loveable.

As you forget the aforementioned facts, the Bible encourages us to think on the following: “Whatever” is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is praise worthy or excellent — think on these things.” (Philippians 4:8)

So, use your Time wisely. “To kill time” means “to murder it.” “Reduce Time” means to value it by Doing — the success of perseverance, the pleasure of working, and the improvement of talent; and by BEING — the worth of character, the virtue of patience and the power of kindness.

Remember that yesterday’s mistakes do not define you, for God is a “God
